Troops for Fort Laramie.

Two Companies of Infantry have been ordered from Fort Riley to re-enforce the garrison at Fort Laramie. They will only be able to act on the defensive, as Infantry would be ineffective in pursuit of mounted Indians. The government force on this frontier is altogether insufficient. Two or three regiments of mounted Rifles, in addition to the present force, are absolutely necessary in New Mexico, Utah, Kansas and Nebraska.

Survey of Indian Reservations.

We learn that Mr. KAUFFMAN of Missouri is engaged in running off the Shawnee reservation on the south side of Kansas River. Mr. Spaulding, formerly of N. York, has the contract for running off the Delaware permanent Reservation on the North side of the Kansas. He will commence operations in a few days with an efficient corps of assistants.

Our neighbor, Dr. France has a very choice assortment of groceries and other useful and necessary articles which he will sell at fair prices. Persons residing on this side the Missouri will find it to their interest to give the Dr. a call.

Mr. Rees will, in a few days, have his store room completed and be ready for his business. In two weeks he will open a general assortment for the convenience of the settlers in Kansas.

Religious.

The Rev. Bishop HAWKS of Missouri delivered an eloquent discourse in the chapel at Fort Leavenworth on Tuesday last, and at the conclusion administered the sacrament to the communicants present, assisted by Rev. Mr. Irish of St. Joseph.

We would inform our readers that religious services are held every Sunday at the garrison by Rev. Leander KERN, the able chaplain of the army.

Fatal Rencontre.

Death of F. X. Aubrey.—It becomes our painful duty this week, to record a fatal rencontre that took place in this city between Mr. F. X. Aubrey and Major R. H. Weightman, which resulted in the death of the former. The facts, within our knowledge, we obtain from the witnesses to the transaction as they related them, under oath, before his Honor Judge Davenport, who sat as the committing magistrate, and therefore may be relied on.

Mr. Aubrey returned from California to this city, last Friday, the 18th inst., about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and stopped at the store of Messrs. Mercere. At the time Major Weightman was sitting at the South east corner of the Plaza, and seeing Mr. Aubrey ride up, remarked, that Aubrey had come, and he must go and see him, and accordingly went down to the store. Mr. Aubrey, at the time Weightman entered the store, was in the act of drinking; they shook hands in a friendly manner, and the former asked the latter to drink with him, which he declined to do, and took a seat upon the counter. A general conversation then took place between them about the journey of Mr. Aubrey from California, which lasted a minute or two, when Aubrey began to talk about the newspaper called El Amigo del Pais, which Weightman had formerly edited in Alluerque.

He asked Weightman what had become of his paper, who replied that it had died for want of subscribers. Aubrey then said that any such lying paper ought to die.—Weightman asked him what he alluded to, when Aubrey replied and said: "Last fall you asked me for information about my trip, which I gave you, and you afterwards abused me." Weightman replied that it was not so, whereupon Aubrey brought his fist down upon the counter with considerable force, and repeated, "I say it is so." Weightman then got off the counter, and took in his right hand a tumbler, about one-third full of liquor and water which was standing by him, and pitched the contents into the face of Mr. Aubrey, he (Weightman) then put the tumbler back on the counter, stepped back a pace or two and placed his hand upon his belt. When Aubrey received the contents of the glass in his face, he immediately drew a five shooter from his left side, and as he brought it up in front of him, one barrel prematurely discharged (supposed he was cocking it) before it was on a level with Weightman's person, and the bullet went off in the ceiling.

When Weightman saw Aubrey draw his pistol, he drew a bowie knife, he wore in his belt. They clinched, and before Aubrey had time to bring his pistol down and fire a second time, Weightman stabbed him in the abdomen. Near the same time that the parties came together, two of the bystanders seized hold of them, but it was too late to prevent the mischief, it had already been done.

Aubrey was caught in the arms of a friend, and died in about ten minutes. Dr. De Leon, Surgeon U. S. A., was called in but no skill could save him.

Major Weightman went to his quarters, and when the Marshall came to arrest him he delivered himself voluntarily into custody. The case was heard the next day before Judge Davenport, and he was bound over to answer in the sum of two thousand dollars.

Thirty-eight deaths from cholera are reported at Buffalo, N. Y., as occurring in the week ending, 11th inst.

Public Meeting at Leavenworth.

At a meeting of the settlers of Kansas Territory held at the city of Leavenworth on Friday September 29th, Dr. Charles Lieb was called to the chair and C. C. Andrews appointed Secretary. The President explained the object of the meeting in a brief and eloquent address.

On motion of Jeremiah Clark, a Committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, viz: J. Clark, D. Dodge, Maj. E. A. Ogden, C. N. Burgess and H. Miles Moore.

In the absence of the Committee the following gentlemen being called out addressed the meeting, B. H. Twombly, General Dunham, Major Morin, D. A. N. Grover, C. C. Andrews, and C. Grover.

The committee then reported the following preamble and resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

We, Squatters, upon the Delaware cession of public lands in Kansas Territory, in general convention assembled, wishing to give a just exposition of our views in relation to our settlement upon these lands, and to place facts pertaining to our present position, fairly before the country, and before the General Administration. Therefore,

Resolved, That we have not met to array ourselves against laws or treaties, the interest of our fellow citizens, the rights of the Indians, or the authority of the General Government, but simply to seek the same privileges and protection which the policy of the country has accorded to the pioneer during the last quarter of a century.

Resolved, That we entered upon and improved our present claims in good faith, in the honest belief that they were or would be secured by pre-emption.

Resolved, That a just and wise policy upon the part of Government, demands a modification of the Delaware treaty, and the immediate extension of the pre-emption law over this district of the Territory. That the best interests of the Indians would be subserved by such a modification, giving them an equitable price per acre for the unconditional and final transfer of the land to the United States.

Resolved, That while we disclaim all intention of prejudicing the interests of the Delawares, and pledge ourselves to use our best endeavors to guard them, we cannot but represent that we as a body of Pioneers have just claims to the favorable consideration of the country.

Resolved, That in view of the invariable and wise policy of the government, and the known views of the present administration in relation to the speedy settlement of these Territories, we may cheerfully confide our case to the consideration of Congress and the Executive, in the full assurance that justice will be done us.

Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting appoint a committee of five to prepare a memorial to the President of the United States, setting forth the aforesaid facts and soliciting such a modification of the Delaware treaty as shall afford us without doubt or obstruction the benefits of the Law of the 22nd July 1854 extending the benefits of the pre-emption act of 1831 to Kansas and Nebraska Territories.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting properly authenticated be respectfully forwarded to the President of the U. S., and to the Hon. D. R. Atchison President of the Senate, and to the speaker of the House of Representatives.

Resolved, That Editors of newspapers throughout the country will confer a favor by publishing these proceedings, and are most respectfully requested to lay them before their readers.

The following resolutions were offered by Jeremiah Clark, and unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we have continued and unshaken confidence in the wisdom and integrity of the present administration, the avowed advocate and champion of "popular sovereignty in the Territories."

Resolved, That we commit the protection of our interests to the Hon. David R. Atchison whose distinguished abilities and position familiarity with Indian affairs and sympathy with the pioneer indicate him as our appropriate advocate.

Resolved, That we fully endorse and will vindicate the principles of the Nebraska Kansas Bill.

Resolved, That we concur in and approve of, and will defend and support the laws and regulations as passed at Salt Creek on the 10th of June, and at Stockbridge on the 8th of July, 1854, until altered or annulled by the settlers of this Territory.

The following gentlemen were appointed a committee to prepare a memorial in pursuance of the 6th resolution, viz: Maj. E. A. Ogden, A. Payne, H. Miles Moore, B. H. Twombly and Jeremiah Clark.

Rev. F. Starr being called for, then addressed the meeting in an eloquent and appropriate speech.

On motion of Maj. Ogden.

Resolved, That our thanks be tendered to the Chairman of this Meeting, for the able manner in which he has presided over its deliberations.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to the 10th of October.

NURSES FOR THE FRENCH SOLDIERS IN THE EAST.—The Monitor says: The Marshal Minister of War has made an appeal to the devotion of the Sisters of St. Vincent de Paul to go and nurse the French soldiers in the hospitals of the army of the East. This appeal has been heard; 25 of these holy virgins are going to embark at Marseilles on board the fastest sailing vessel: 25 more will follow shortly after, and the worthy superior has encouraged the hope that the number may be raised to 100.

PROSPECTUS of the KANSAS HERALD.

LEAVENWORTH KANSAS TERRITORY.

We shall issue on the 15th of September at Leavenworth, Kansas Territory, the Kansas Herald, a weekly Journal devoted to Miscellaneous, Literature, Agriculture, general intelligence, and the maintenance of Democratic principles. Coming on the political arena at a time when the whole country is convulsed with fierce sectional conflicts, we shall take our stand, at the start firmly against the sweeping current of public infatuation and plant ourselves on the platform of the strict construction, democratic principles and measures of popular supremacy. State sovereignty, equal privileges, adherence to the Constitution of the United States, representation, frequency of elections, opposition to class legislation. It is the success of these principles and measures that has elevated our beloved country with a rapidity unparalleled in the annals of nations, to a height of prosperity and power which justly entitles her to be the wonder of the world. Though falling short in power to assist materially in upholding the success of Democratic rule, our best efforts shall be put forth in the cause; and we are determined that a want of sincerity and vigilance shall not be justly laid to our charge.

Believing that a continuance of the factional disputes that agitate our Territory are prejudicial to its peace and onward progress, we shall exert whatever influence we may possess, to heal dissensions, the indulgence of which cannot fail to do harm.

The passage of the Nebraska Bill, with its various provisions has drawn the attention of the whole Union, towards Kansas, with reference to an abrogation of the Missouri Compromise. Opinions differ widely as to the propriety and we find, equally good men both for and against the bill. We doubt not the honesty of either side, nor shall we denounce either. The question whether slavery shall exist or be prohibited is to be decided at the ballot-box, by the freemen of Kansas and it would be a departure from the spirit and meaning of the bill establishing the territory for a Newspaper to attempt to dictate to any faction. We belong to no clique, and shall advocate the "people's rights" and shall give our opinions freely and plainly in any emergency that may arise, without dictation from any source whatever. We shall set forth the issue, such as it is nothing more or less, and treat both sides with fairness without passion. We endorse the present national administration, in the wisdom, purity and firmness of whose government, and strict fidelity to the Constitution, we have the highest confidence.

Ours is peculiarly an agricultural State, and our encouragement will be given to all efforts to promote this branch of industry, and for the development of agricultural science, so important to the people of Kansas, as a grain growing community. We have embarked in the enterprise of establishing a Democratic Journal, that while it shall maintain and defend the principles of our political party, in their strictness and purity, shall at the same time present to the merchant and man of business, the best and most reliable medium by which they can reach the masses of Kansas and Western Missouri, in a business point of view, and we doubt not the success of our undertaking.

It is conceded by all, that Leavenworth will soon be the great commercial depot, west of St. Louis, for besides being the Capital of Kansas Territory we assume, and located at the only good landing on the Mo. River, it will continue to be the nucleus of a great part of the trade of N. Mexico, Utah, Oregon, Washington, Nebraska, western Iowa, western Missouri, and Kansas, and we, therefore, offer to the business men of St. Louis, Boston, New York, and New Orleans, facilities for advertising with the assurance that their advertisements will be seen by thousands.

Our circulation will extend to every State in the Union; it may be found at the family fireside in Maine, and in the wilds of Nebraska; among the most cultivated people of the Southern and Eastern States, and around the borders of the Western Lakes.

We shall keep up with this age of astonishing progress, and it is our purpose to issue a daily as soon as we meet with sufficient encouragement and patronage to justify the additional expense.

To the friends of Democracy particularly, and to all generally, who would encourage the diffusion of useful knowledge and correct information, we would make an appeal to aid us in extending the circulation of the Herald. It will be our highest ambition, our great object and study to give them a paper worthy of our cause and the enlightened age and nation in which our lot has been cast.
